12 août 2018 – 19^e dimanche du temps ordinaire B

Faire le nécessaire pour soutenir et nourrir la vie que Dieu nous a donnée.- Pain de vie, aide-nous à Te goûter et à Te voir dans la nourriture que nous mangeons, les choses que nous voyons, les sons qui remplissent nos vies. Rends-nous attentifs à ce que nous avons besoin de faire pour prendre soin de nous-mêmes, pour qu'à notre tour nous puissions prendre soin des autres. Amen.

« Que faut-il faire pour travailler à l'œuvre de Dieu? »

1- La bienveillance dans ses paroles: excuser les gens au lieu de les accuser. Ne jamais avoir de paroles désagréables: absence complète de plaintes et de critiques. Profond respect pour chaque personne.

2- Avoir un regard d'admiration sur les autres et les événements: savoir trouver le beau côté de chaque chose.

3-Exiger peu pour soi-même par rapport à tout ce qu'on peut donner de sa personne pour le bonheur des autres: toujours être prêt à rendre service et lorsque quelqu'un semble mal pris, être le premier arrivé pour l'aider.

4- Avoir de l'humour, la joie de vivre et une bonne humeur constante, afin d'être agréable à fréquenter.

Cette sainteté du quotidien est notre meilleure façon de travailler à l'œuvre de Dieu et elle demeure le défi de chaque baptisé que nous sommes. Mais tout ceci n'est pas naturel: ça vient par la prière et par le témoignage de ces gens qui n'ont pas besoin de parler tellement leur agir est limpide et inspirant.

« L'œuvre de Dieu, c'est que vous croyez » nous dit le Christ aujourd'hui... ce qui veut dire: ne pas chercher des signes, mais devenir nous-mêmes un signe authentique de l'œuvre de Dieu vécue au jour le jour pour le plus grand bonheur de tous ceux qui nous entourent.
